ABOUT THE ARCHIVES BAZAAR

For more than 20 years, the L.A. AS SUBJECT consortium has brought to life the diverse, often hidden stories that make Southern California such a fascinating place of discovery. In 2005, we inaugurated the Los Angeles ARCHIVES BAZAAR to give anyone with an interest in the region's history a one-stop opportunity to interact with dozens of archives, from large institutions to private collectors. In all, more than 80 archives are represented at this event, which is free and open to the public. This year, our programming will capitalize on the rich culinary history of Southern California, where generations of immigrants have contributed to create today's kaleidoscopic fusion of food. For up-to-date information on featured programming at the Bazaar, go to laassubject.org/archives-bazaar.
