ICY SMITH
Mei Ling in China City and The Lonely Queue

The Lonely Queue: The Forgotten History of the Courageous Chinese Americans in Los Angeles. It is a remarkable story of how a small barrio became the first planned Chinese American community in the United States. The film was produced in collaboration with the Getty Research Institute at the University of Southern California and ONE National Gay & Lesbian Archives. To learn more, visit ONE National Gay & Lesbian Archives at www.onearchives.org.

CAROL WILLS
How to Save Your Family Photos and Art when Your Kids Don’t Want Them

This is the richest and most complete guide to eating in Los Angeles. It collects over 200 of Los Angeles’s best restaurants discovered in the course of one writer’s two-year quest to find the city’s best food. The New Los Angeles is the largest guide to Los Angeles ever published.

4:15 p.m. – 5:15 p.m.
LONI SHIBUYAMA
YOUR COLLECTION WHEN YOUR KIDS DON’T WANT IT
YOU STILL CAN’T TAKE IT WITH YOU: WHAT TO DO WITH YOUR COLLECTION WHEN YOUR KIDS DON’T WANT IT

WALKER EXPLAINS THE ORIGINS OF HIS IMAGINATIVE HISTORICAL AND ARTISTIC PROJECT, WRITING, “THE RICHES AND VIOLENT HISTORY OF THE CITY OF ANGELS IS A RICH FLYING FIELD FOR A LETTERS WRITER.”
