

15TH-ANNUAL LOS ANGELES ARCHIVES BAZAAR GOES VIRTUAL

SCHEDULE AT-A-GLANCE
SATURDAY 10/17/2020, 8AM-8PM

Celebrating L.A. archives “All Day. All in one Place.” through live presentations, interactive sessions, and on demand videos. For a full description of the program, participants, and presenter bios, visit the Archives Bazaar website: <https://laasubject.org/archives-bazaar>

8:00-8:45am	Coffee with the Coordinator – Instagram live with @LAasSubject
9:00-10:00am	15th Annual Archives Bazaar Kick-off - live stream
10:00-11:00am	In Search of Greater El Monte's Radical Past: SEMAP, La Casa, and Public History - live stream	Basement Tapes Day Click here for schedule and RSVP information 	Reference Room Click here to visit & ask your questions (BREAKS 12-1PM & 2-3PM)
11:00am-12:00pm	The Garifuna: a people, a culture, a language—and vibrant L.A. community - live stream
12:00-1:00pm	Black History in the Archives: Black Leaders of Leisure in the West during the Struggle for Freedom during the Jim Crow Era - live stream
1:00-2:00pm	More than an Architectural Icon: The Collections of Central Library - live stream
2:00-3:00pm	The Los Angeles Preservation Network (LAPNet) Presents: An Introduction to Book Structure, Handling, Assessment, and Care for your Personal Collections - live stream
3:00-4:00pm	Archives Bazaar: From the Southland to the Southwest - live stream
5:00-8:00pm	Home Movie Day RSVP here & join the stream on the Home Movie Day LA YouTube channel 	ON DEMAND! ONLINE EXHIBITS, VIRTUAL EXHIBITOR BOOTHS AND TUTORIALS Virtual exhibitor booth and showcase videos of L.A. as Subject member collections- Workshop videos by L.A. as Subject Resident Archivists Online exhibit- When I Think of Home: Images from L.A. Archives Online exhibit- LA as Subject: 25 years of Highlighting Southern California Archives	